UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT Western District of Washington

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I, Hernandez Ryan, have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

The defendant shall reside for a period not to exceed 180 days in a residential reentry center (pre-release component), as directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility. Subsistence fee is waived. (This condition would only be imposed if Mr. Hernandez becomes homeless or has no approved residence. He could live there until he secures an approved residence. Cost would be waived.)

The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, internet service providers (ISPs), social media accounts, messaging applications and cloud storage accounts that have been approved, in advance, by the Probation Officer. Computers and computer-related devices include personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, digital storage media, and their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers.

All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search and seizure. This shall not apply to items used at the employment's site, which are maintained and monitored by the employer.

The defendant shall submit to a search, at any time, with or without warrant, and by any law enforcement or probation officer, of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers [as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)], cell phones, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, effects and other areas under the offender's control, upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervision or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $25, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

The defendant shall not associate or have verbal, written, telephonic, or electronic communication with any person under the age of 18, except: (a) in the presence of the parent or legal guardian of said minor; and (b) on the condition that the defendant notify said parent or legal guardian of the defendant's conviction in the instant offense/prior offense. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, etc., whom the defendant must interact with in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.
